Elections

Voting has begun and will continue until September 29th. Members will be able to cast their votes online wherever they have internet access, including at work. Please remember to register and vote at <http://caw1016.ca>. If you have already registered and can't remember your login, password or voting number, please contact our webmaster at webmaster@caw1016.ca. Good luck to all candidates.

Win a Day Off

In July we announced a contest to encourage our members to sign up on our Web Site. The prize was a paid day off and the winner would be drawn from the eligible members signed up on our web site as of August 31, 2008. The winner of the Paid day off is Sharon Hadaway of Edmonton. Congratulations Sharon you will be contacted shortly with details on how to claim your day off!

CATCA Clarifies Position on TSS Work

In a letter dated September 9th, CATCA President Greg Myles reiterated CATCA's March 2005 position and further stated "where it comes to work that is currently and traditionally performed by TSS members, our position is clear: Such functions should not be transferred to students nor to members of our bargaining unit". CATCA's continuing support of our position is another step towards a resolution of this long standing issue and is greatly appreciated. For full text visit: <http://caw1016.ca>.

Classification Review

The classification committee will be meeting with Deloitte in Ottawa next week to go over the data. There are still a few outstanding Position Description Questionnaires (PDQ's), but this shouldn't delay the process much. The remaining PDQ's will be evaluated as they are received. Expect to see a new Classification Bulletin after the meetings next week.

CAW Group Insurance Program

The CAW Group Insurance Program is now available to all CAW members and offers discounted automobile (excluding BC, SK & MB) and home insurance premiums. For more information on this program, check out the letter on our website or go to www.cawinsurance.com.
